Showing Your Love

Sri.Sri.Radha
Kṛṣṇa Temple

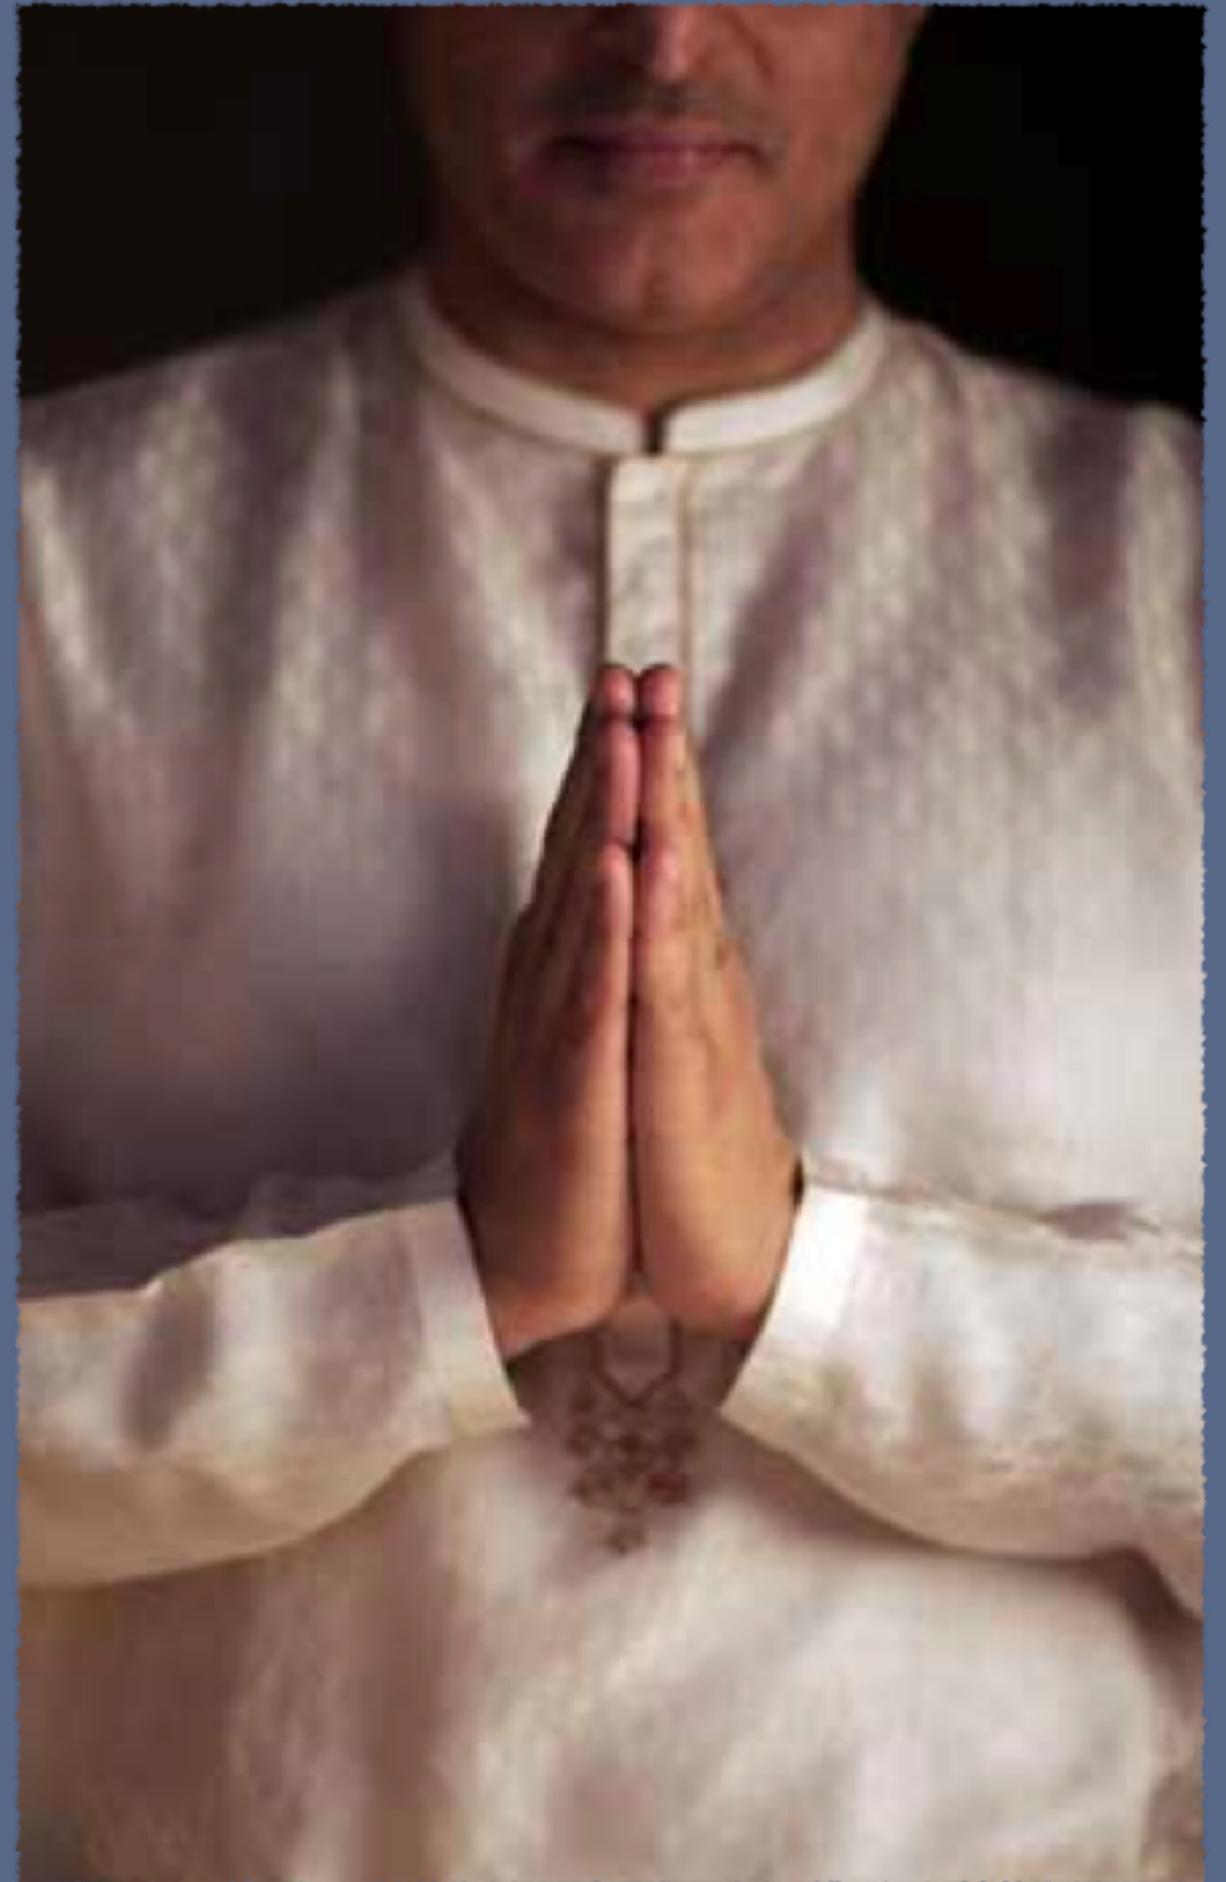

“Recently a pioneering band of researchers studied the age-old mystery of what makes people happy. Their answer is not what you might expect. What appears consistently at the top of the charts is not success, wealth, achievement, good looks, or any of those enviable assets. The clear winner is close relationships.

“Nothing reaches so deeply into human personality, tugs so tightly, as relationship. Why? For one reason, it is only in the context of connection with others that our deepest needs can be met. Whether we like it or not, each of us has an unshakable dependence on others. It’s what philosopher John Donne was getting at when he said so succinctly, ‘No man is an island.’ We need camaraderie, affection, love. These are not options in life, or sentimental trimmings; they are part of our species’ survival kit.

Key to show respect

treat others as you would want to be treated.

Study People around you

*see what they like, don't like,
what frustrates them, what makes them happy..what do they need, what do they respond to?*

Timing Important

- Hubby coming in tired not time to tell Mother in Law is coming for two Months
- Saying the right thing at the wrong time is still wrong.
- Vaibhavi the evening
- Not demanding my wife change, boss change, what can I do to study them and make the changes in me.

Be a Good Listener

- SOLE Symmetrical, open, lean forward, eye contact
- With all the multi tasking, if we're not careful, find we're not really listening
- When someone trying to talk to you, computer's on, take cell phone call, start texting, that's sending the wrong message

Don't interrupt

- May know what they are going to say, heard the story, but let them finish. Max Lucada story..
- May have heard a joke 400 times but let them have the joy of telling it and laugh like it's first time you heard it.

Meeting after some time...

- First TWO minutes had more impact than spending hours with them later on.
- How often coming home, we're not even aware of the people around us. "Hey, I'm back, got to get off my feet.."

Body Language

- 60 % of Communication
- Facial Expression, Voice Expression communicates more than our words
- Learn to keep a pleasant demeanor, learn to smile and be careful the way you say things.

Tactful

- Ability to make your point without making an enemy
- Tell someone to jump in the lake, & they look forward to it.
- Changing the subject without changing your mind
- Telling someone he's open minded when he really has a hole in his head.
